

Visitation Schedule "A"

The Nonresidential Parent shall have the following Visitation rights:

- A. Alternating weekends from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m.;
- B. Birthdays of the children which occur in even numbered years;
- C. Every birthday of the Nonresidential Parent;
- D. Every Mother's Day weekend shall be spent with the Mother, and every Father's Day weekend shall be spent with the Father;
- E. Child's Spring Break in even numbered years.
- F. Easter weekends which occur in odd numbered years;
- G. Memorial Day weekends which occur in even numbered years from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Monday at 6:00 p.m.;
- H. Fourth of July weekends which occur in odd numbered years from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Monday at 6:00 p.m.;
- I. Labor Day weekends which occur in even numbered years from Friday at 6:00p.m. until Monday at 6:00 p.m.;
- J. Thanksgiving Holidays in odd numbered years from Saturday at 9:00a.m. until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.;
- K. Thanksgiving Holidays in even numbered years from Thursday at 9:00 a.m. until Friday at 7:00 p.m.;
- L. Christmas Holidays in odd numbered years from 5:00 p.m. on December 17 until noon on December 25;
- M. Christmas Holiday in even numbered years from noon on December 25 until 5:00 p.m. on January 1;
- N. Each parent shall have one-half of the Children's summer vacation and the non-residential parent shall give 90 days notice to the Residential parent of the time periods chosen, and

- O. Any other reasonable times after reasonable notice to the Residential Parent.
- P. Should holiday visitation interfere with the nonresidential parent's alternating weekend visitation, then holiday visitation shall prevail. Summer visitation for each parent shall prevail over all other scheduled visitation. If a party takes the children out of town, that party will provide the other party with an address and phone number where they can be reached while out of town.
- Q. Neither party shall remove the minor child from the State of Florida for a period of more than two (2) weeks per year for vacation purposes only without a Court Order allowing said removal or written consent of the other party.
- R. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the Mother shall be responsible for childcare for the child(ren) in the event that they are ill or unable to attend school or daycare on even numbered days of the month. The Father shall be responsible for the odd-numbered days.

revised 5/16/06